American Indian Civil Rights Conference

August 10-11, 2010
Albuquerque, NM

Pathways to Respecting American Indian Civil Rights Education, Health, Justice, Employment, Housing, and Other Services

The U.S. Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights, Denver and Kansas City Offices will host a conference specifically designed as an exchange of information among American Indians, Pueblo, and Tribal entities, Federal agencies, and educational and other service providers.

The conference is FREE, but you must PRE-REGISTER.

Take this opportunity to participate in a meaningful conference that will provide a space to identify common concerns, receive information, and participate in activities that will help create pathways to respecting American Indian civil rights.
